

Who can enter?

This awards programme is only open to UK-based private sector, public sector and third sector organisations that have at least 20 employees.

Is there a limit to the number of categories we can enter?

You may enter as many relevant categories as you choose. There must be a separate submission for each category.

Can we submit multiple entries to the same category?

You may submit more than one entry for the individual categories only. There must be a separate submission for each person that you enter in an individual category.

What is the eligibility period?

The eligibility period is from 1st January 2016 to 31st March 2017. We will accept supporting evidence that came to light after this period, as long as it refers to the eligible period.

What is the entry process?

To successfully submit your entry, you must complete the online registration and complete a form for each submission you choose to make. You can register online at the-uksma.org

What are the entry details?

Each entry will consist of a written submission and optional supporting information. The written submission will be in three parts: a 200-word executive summary; 1,200 words where you tell the story of what took place, what the challenges were and how these were overcome and finally, 300 words to share what was achieved and how success was measured. You can upload up to three files in pdf or jpeg format (of no more than 5mb each) as supporting information.

Confidentiality

In the event of you being shortlisted, your executive summary will form the entry in the awards brochure. Your written submission and achievements may also feature in the case studies publication to promote social mobility excellence. If your submission or supporting documents contain business sensitive information, please state this clearly and indicate which information should not be published.

I am still not sure about the entry process

If you have any further queries about the entry process, please email your query to info@mtl.org.uk.
